

PRESS RELEASE

Activities marking the 1st Anniversary of the Olusegun Mimiko Administration continue tomorrow, Tuesday, 23rd February, 2010 with a public lecture titled “Electoral Reform and Good Governance: Lessons for Nigeria” which will be delivered by a former US Ambassador to Nigeria, Mr. Walter Carrington.

The lecture which holds at the State Cultural Centre, Adegbemile, Akure, at 10.0’clock in the morning, has as its Chairman, a former President of the Senate of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, Senator Ken Nnamani, while the Guest of Honour is the immediate past Governor of Lagos State, Asiwaju Bola Ahmed Tinubu.

A press statement issued by the Commissioner for Information, Mr. Ranti Akerele, advises all political office holders, top government functionaries, traditional and religious leaders, the academia, the organized private sector and the general public to attend the all-important and educative lecture.

Mr. Akerele also enjoins all to be punctual.

Fayeun Julie (Mrs.)
Deputy Director, Information
22nd February, 2010