

GOVERNOR MIMIKO MOURNS PASSAGE OF ADESANYA'S WIFE

The Ondo State Governor, Dr Olusegun Mimiko has commiserated with the Family of the late leader of the Afenifere, the Pan Yoruba socio-cultural group, Pa Abraham Adesanya over the death of its matriarch, Madam Rosanna Adesanya saying that by her demise, another vacuum has been created in the rank and file of the Yourba race.

Mimiko in a press statement issued on his behalf by his Chief Press Secretary, Mr. Kolawole Olabisi noted with regret the demise of a woman who stood by her husband during his numerous brushes with the government of the day in his desire for the total emancipation of the nation from the shackles of the oppressors then.

Mama Rosana was not only the unseen rock of Gilbratar behind her husband but "she was a pillar behind her husband while he was in the fore-front of the fight for the emancipation of the nation from the military brass; she will be sorely missed by all."

He commiserated with the entire Adesanya family of Ijebu Igbo and the entire Yoruba nation over the death of an Amason who stood by her husband and provided succour for her husband and the entire members of the Yoruba race during the topsy turvey days of the emancipation of the nation from the military juntas.

"On behalf of the goos people of Ondo State and my family, I want to commiserate with the family of late Pa Adesanya, the Yoruba race and the children over the death of mama. may the good Lord console you over this irreparable loss. Please accept our condolence and sympathy over this sad loss."

--

Kolawole Olabisi,

Chief Press Secretary to the Governor of Ondo State, Governor's Office. Akure, Ondo State