

MIMIKO MAKES MINOR CHANGES IN CABINET, APPOINTS NEW COMMISSIONER

The Ondo State Governor Olusegun Mimiko on Wednesday made a minor reshuffle of his Cabinet just as he appointed a new Commissioner.

Dr Mimiko who made the changes during the State's weekly meeting moved the erstwhile Commissioner in Charge of Women Affairs, Mrs Bukola Tenabe to oversee the Multilateral Affairs Ministry. This is a new Ministry. Mrs Kehinde Momoh, who hitherto calls the shot at the Ministry of Adult, Technical and Vocational Education would now moved to to the Ministry of Women Affairs.

Also, the erstwhile Commissioner for Natural Resources, Mr. Solagbade Amodeni is now to oversee the Ministry of Adult, Technical and Vocational Education. The new Commissioner, Mr Aderemi Olatubora who was also sworn in earlier in the day is now the new Commissioner incharge of Natural Resources. Olatubora, a lawyer from Irele Local Government Area of the State replaces Mr. Yele Omogunwa who recently resigned from the Cabinet
