

Color, Culture and Climbing Climax Mare

The 2011 edition of the Mare Festival organised by the Ondo State Government entered its third and final day yesterday with the final of the mountain climbing competition for amateurs and professionals.

More than mountain climbing however, cultural troupes representing different states of the federation and the 18 local government areas of Ondo State turned out in colors churning attention grabbing performances.

Before the entertainment segment, winners of the climbing competition were announced.

Jammy Jimbo Smith came first in the professional category, followed by Brian Weaver, while Morijus Smigeshis came third.

A professional Climber attempting to conquer one of the Hills in Idanre

Akinseye Temidayo came first in the amateur category, followed by Oluwashina Stephen and Akingboye Cynthia, a female came third. The winners in both categories are to be given their prizes at the grand finale later in the night.