

Mimiko Commiserates with Aikhomu's Family

Ondo State Governor, Dr Olusegun Mimiko on Thursday commiserated with the family of the late Admiral Augustus Aikhomu, a former Vice President to the General Ibrahim Babangida over his demise saying that his death came as a shock.

Mimiko in a release issued by his Chief Press Secretary described the late Admiral as a conscientious, loyal and dedicated officer who served his fatherland with all his might during his lifetime and prayed for the repose of his soul.

While commiserating with the family of the deceased, Mimiko urged the children to emulate the sterling qualities of their father and prayed that the Lord console the wife, and the entire Aikhomu family the fortitude to bear the loss.
