

Ondo SWAN Elects New Exco

by Tosin Omojola, Tirbune.

THE Ondo state chapter of the Sports Writers of Nigeria (SWAN) has elected new officials to oversee its affairs for the next three years.

At the polls which took place at the Press Centre, Akure under the supervision of SWAN's deputy president, Kehinde Lamidi and vice chairman (South west), Muideen Adeleke, Sport editor of Continental Broadcasting Service (Adaba FM) Akintunde Akinsemola beat Wahab Bankole of the Ondo State Radio vision Corporation (OSRC) in a keenly contested election to emerge the new chairman.

Other elected officials are Samuel Odeyemi (vice chairman), Micheal Akintunde (secretary), Koretimi Olawale (financial secretary), Dayo Johnson (treasurer) and Biyi Akinodi (assistant secretary).

Immediate past chairman, Dupe Balogun thanked the members of the association for the support he received while in office just as he charged the newly elected exco to be transparent and industrious in the discharge of their duties.
