

We Won't Deviate from our Agenda -Mimiko...Commends Kunlere

By Moses Ojo, the hope.

Ondo State Governor, Dr. Olusegun Mimiko has urged the people of the Southern Senatorial District of the state to cooperate and support their representative in the National Assembly, Senator Boluwaji Kunlere to enable him use his position for the growth and development of the area.

The governor who made the plea in his remark during a thanksgiving service and reception in honour of the politician yesterday at St. John's Anglican Church, Igbotako in Okitipupa Local Government Area of the state referred to the celebrant as an exemplary leader who has demonstrated uncommon dignity, character and courage.

His words: “ Senator Kunlere is a nice and humble politician who God has lifted above his enemies. He is an unusual politician and his life is a challenge to many politicians who are seeking positions of authority.” While congratulating the entire Kunlere family, the governor described his wife as a virtuous woman whose tolerance and courage contributed immensely to the Senator's electoral victory.

Having assured the people that his administration will not deviate from the path of progress it has already taken, Mimiko vowed to do everything possible to transform the land and the people. On the State's University of Science and Technology (OSUSTECH) in Okitipupa, the governor assured that no stone will be left unturned towards making it one of the best higher institutions in the country in the areas of academic excellence and provision of modern infrastructural facilities.

In his sermon, the Bishop of Anglican Diocese on the Coast, Rt. Rev. Ebunoluwa Ogunele, admonished those occupying the positions of authority not to use the privilege to impoverish the masses to be able to enjoy the goodwill of the people who entrust them with such positions.

He commended Senator Kunlere for playing the politics of development by striving at all times to promote peace and impact positively on the lives of his people.

In an interview, the representative of the Senate President, Senator Tony Adeniyi canvassed for more support for the celebrant who he said has been representing his people effectively at the Senate. Responding, Senator Kunlere appreciated those who graced the event and pledged not to use his position to promote violence.

He commended Governor Mimiko for fulfilling his electioneering campaign promises to the people of the area, one of which he said is the turning the Comprehensive Health Centre in the town into a General Hospital.

“ I want to use this medium to assure the good people of the Southern Senatorial District who I am representing at the Senate that I will not let them down” he said.
