

Dr. Olusegun Mimiko rejoices with the people of Ekiti State over the declaration of Dr, Kayode Fayemi as the authentic and true winner of the 2007 Gubernatorial Elections

The Ondo State Governor, Dr. Olusegun Mimiko on behalf of the Government and the people of Ondo State rejoices with the people of Ekiti State over the declaration of Dr, Kayode Fayemi as the authentic and true winner of the 2007 Gubernatorial Elections in Ekiti State.

Governor Mimiko said this result has again shown the supremacy of truth over falsehood, the resilient and indomitable spirit of the Ekiti people known for their progressive minds to fight against injustice.

Dr. Olusegun Mimiko said this is an indication that falsehood cannot and will not stand.

He praised the judiciary for being an unbiased and just arbiter, a fair umpire, a reliable and just defender of the rights of the masses.

Governor Mimiko said the judgment also shows the need for INEC to insist on one man one vote in-order to preserve its integrity and ensure sustainable democracy.

He congratulated the people of Ekiti over this birth of a new era signalling the liberation of the masses from subjugation.
